

Do away with the high cost of administration by running erate dollars through they same way as Title I funds. These dollars are determined through the schools poverty rate the same as erate. States oversee if those dollars are spent within the guidelines established. For our state of Oklahoma we have the OCAS (Oklahoma Cost and accounting system).